NCCAP ADVERTISING POLICY 2019

NCCAP accepts advertising in certain of its professional publications and websites, meeting, event and symposium publications. Advertising revenue is used to support the activities of the NCCAP.

The appearance of advertising does not indicate or imply endorsement of the advertised company or product, nor is advertising ever allowed to influence educational or editorial content. Members and the public count on NCCAP to be an authoritative, specialized and independent credentialing organization for the Activity Profession. Public confidence in our objectivity is critical to carrying out our mission.

NCCAP adheres to the code set forth by the Council of Medical Specialty Societies (CMSS) Code for Interactions with Companies, Standards for Advertising which states in pertinent part:

“Advertising should be easily distinguishable from editorial content (e.g., through labels and color-coding). Advertising should not be designed to look like scientific articles. Placement of advertising adjacent to articles or editorial content discussing a company or product that is the subject of the ad should be prohibited. Advertising in should be subject to review by the CEO and Board. Advertising for CE activities or credits should also comply with requirements for advertising.”

ADVERTISING ACCEPTANCE

1. NCCAP has the right to refuse any advertisement that, in its sole discretion, is incompatible with its mission or inconsistent with the values of members or the organization as a whole, and to stop accepting any advertisement previously accepted. Ads are subject to review by the CEO and Board of NCCAP. In no case shall separate agreements with the NCCAP or its subsidiaries supersede this policy.
2. Advertising for the following categories is prohibited: Alcohol, Tobacco, Weapons, firearms, ammunition, Fireworks, Gambling and lottery, Pornography or related themes, Political and religious advertisements, Advertisements that claim to have a “miracle” cure or method, Advertisements that make unsubstantiated health claims for the products advertised, Advertisements directed at children.
3. Advertisements new to NCCAP may require pre-approval before they can appear.
4. Advertisers may be required to submit supporting documentation to substantiate claims, if any.
5. While the NCCAP welcomes and encourages information-rich advertising, advertisements, advertising icons and advertiser logos must be clearly distinguishable from editorial content and may require special labeling to distinguish them as such.
