WERE YOU UNABLE TO FINISH THE KATHY HUGHES MEPAP COURSE THROUGH ACTIVITY DIRECTOR NETWORK (ADN)

July 21, 2020

With the untimely passing of MEPAP Instructor Kathy Hughes, many students, Activity Directors and Administrators have contacted us seeking clarification regarding false information shared by Activity Director Network (ADN).

We have been told by many Activity Directors and Administrators that this false information is leading to instances of regulatory noncompliance and job loss.

To be clear, the MEPAP course remains the sole educational curriculum that meets NAAP Professional Standards of Practice for the Activity Profession and is required to obtain NCCAP certification.

Unfortunately, ADN switched to the “National Activity Professional Training” (NAPT) course which does not meet our Professional Standards of Practice.

To clarify the false information being shared with students by ADN:

- The ADN NAPT course does not replace the MEPAP.
- The ADN NAPT course does not meet the requirements for NCCAP certification.
- The ADN NAPT course is not accepted as meeting NAAP Professional Standards of Practice.

Further, ADN is no longer offering a path to NCCAP Certification and has chosen to affiliate with NAAPCC. For clarification, NAAP created both NCCAP (1986) and NAAPCC (2011) and NAAP no longer recognizes NAAPCC as meeting the Professional Standards of Practice.
